FOREWORD FROM ROTHMANS OF PALL MALL

It is always a pleasure to welcome the publication of a new edition of Rothmans Football Yearbook, now in its 15th year and firmly established as the 'bible' of what is still the nation's most popular sport.

We also welcome Peter Dunk as Editor and look forward to the introduction of his fresh ideas, which are woven into the existing fabric and format of the book.

Once again everything you ever needed to know about the game is included within the pages of the book and Rothmans Publications take this opportunity of thanking the many people who work so hard to maintain the high quality and standard of the publication.

INTRODUCTION

The fifteenth edition of Rothmans Football Yearbook gives full details of the 1982–84 European Football Championship, including the full list of teams and goalscorers for the qualifying competition and the final tournament.

In addition there is the usual full coverage of domestic football with line-ups, goalscorers and attendances of all matches in the English and Scottish Leagues, as well as the Milk Cup, FA Cup, Scottish League Cup and Scottish Cup. All international matches involving the four home countries and the Republic of Ireland are also covered, together with sections on Welsh and Northern Irish League football and non-League football.

This edition also includes a freshly-researched list of all international goalscorers for the home countries since 1872, a completely new section dealing with football in North and South America, and for the first time we have included the League fixtures for 1984–85 in two formats – day-by-day and quick-reference 'acrostic' style.

The Editor would like to thank Maurice Golesworthy, Lionel Francis and Alan Elliott respectively for their assistance in the compilation of the Diary, non-League football and the Scottish section, and thanks are also due to Christine Forrest, whose painstaking and conscientious reading of all the proofs has been of invaluable assistance in the preparation of the book. Special thanks go to Jack Rollin, former editor of Rothmans Football Yearbook, whose support and advice have been of immense value to me.

The Editor would also like to pay tribute to the various organisations who have helped to make this edition complete, especially Mike Foster of The Football League, Mike McNamara of The Football Association, and the secretaries of all the Football League and Scottish League clubs for their kind co-operation. The ready availability of Football League secretary Graham Kelly and his staff to answer queries was as usual most appreciated, and thanks are due in equal measure to Jim Farry, the Scottish Football League secretary, and his staff.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The Editor would like to express his appreciation of the following individuals and organisations for their co-operation: Glynis Firth, Sandra Whiteside and Debbie Singleton (all from The Football League); Adrian Titcombe (The Football Association); The Scottish Football Association, The Welsh Football Association, David C. Thomson of The Scottish Football League; Alan Dick, Don Aldridge, Malcolm Brodie, A. Rice (The English Schools FA), W. P. Goss (AFA), and Jenny Sutton. Finally, thanks to Celia Kent, the house editor of the book, for her support and encouragement during the year.

EDITORIAL

When you consider that during Liverpool's impressive 15th League Championship season they prised just one point in two attempts from Wolverhampton Wanderers, the bottom club, FA Cup semi-finalists Plymouth Argyle only just escaped relegation to Division Four and Tottenham Hotspur won the UEFA Cup despite an indifferent domestic season, the depth of strength in the League is undeniable – at least up to a point.

But it could be argued that as Liverpool under Joe Fagan's guidance for the first time have achieved their seventh title in nine seasons and overhauled Arsenal's previous record of eight championships during this period, the need for consistent challengers to ignite the competition is obvious. Not content with this admirable achievement, Liverpool added the Milk Cup and the European Cup in a season which in the domestic sphere saw the League itself sponsored for the first time by Canon (UK) Ltd.

Their involvement coincided with the arrival of live televised League football and despite its advent on the small screen, overall attendances were down by less than half a million on the previous term. Indeed, with a 6 per cent increase in Milk Cup gates it might be said that the decline showed some sign of being halted, though FA Cup attendances themselves slumped in a season of many upsets.

Live Friday night matches menaced Saturday afternoon attendances in a disturbing manner which was not true of the Sunday afternoon coverage. The continued unease with outbreaks of violence among so-called followers of the game was tempered by the growing if belated realisation that the attendant hooliganism is socially oriented; a fact brought home by examples of industrial brawling which was often indistinguishable from mayhem on the terraces and outside grounds.

Club successes have frequently overshadowed disappointing performances by the national team in recent years, so European Championship failure was no great surprise. But it was ironic that both Wales and Northern Ireland came much closer to reaching the finals than either Scotland or England, even though the latter two decided in their wisdom to end the 100-year-old British International Championship. The last series ended pointedly with Ireland and Wales – both of whom desperately need the revenue from these games – finishing first and second. The double irony of the situation comes from the value League clubs place on not only Scots but Irish and Welsh players. Liverpool used only 15 players in their championship season – only four of them English born and one of these restricted to a handful of appearances. Footballer of the Year Ian Rush, with a personal tally of 49 goals in all senior matches for club and Wales, headed a cosmopolitan clique of Liverpool elite. This was completed by five Scots, three Eire internationals, a Zimbabwe international goalkeeper and another player born in South Africa and brought up in Australia.

Despite Liverpool's overwhelming domination of the game, Everton, who have lived under the red shadow on Merseyside for more years than they care to recall, emerged creditably with a plucky Milk Cup runners-up berth against their Anfield rivals and victory in the FA Cup over Watford, who only six years earlier were still in the Fourth Division. Everton also won the FA Youth Cup.

If the modern game has taken its fair share of knocks about a lack of spectacle, the UEFA Cup Final was a good example of finely-balanced thrills, the outcome only decided on penalty kicks with Spurs succeeding at Anderlecht's expense. There was a similar end to the more chess-like European Cup Final, with Liverpool triumphing as Roma sagged in front of their own fans.

Penalty kicks are a lottery and with referees clearly intent on getting the business over with as little hassle as possible the enforcement of the rule forbidding goalkeepers to move before the kick is taken is largely ignored. This certainly applied to the Tottenham game, although in Liverpool's case the kickers who failed all managed to put the ball wide. Yet in a bygone age, corner kicks were used to decide matches, possibly a fairer method of determining a winner affer 90 minutes plus extra time if carrying on until a sudden death winner is considered unacceptable. But perhaps the most important factor of sudden death would be in the attitude over the 90 minutes of play which would encourage players to adopt a more positive approach rather than the fearful negation which is all too obvious for nearly half the match.

The implementation by the FA of a School for Excellence and the adoption of the Youth Opportunity Scheme for youngsters attached to League clubs reflected the intention to encourage embryo talent, but oddly enough the greater impact came at the other end of the age scale with the announced retirement of players like Trevor Brooking, Kevin Keegan, John Hollins and Eddie Gray, seasoned and accomplished professionals who have graced the game and will not easily be replaced if at all.

ALEX FERGUSON With a towering trio of trophies in 1983–84 comprising the Scottish League Championship, the Scottish FA Cup and European Super Cup, Aberdeen strengthened their claim to be the leading club in Scotland and one shrewdly guided by Manager Alex Ferguson, whose reign at Pittodrie has been of tremendous benefit to Scottish football as a whole. Not only has this manifested itself on the domestic front but with equal impact abroad, where there has been increasing respect and admiration for the Scottish game. The steely Ferguson took over the reins in 1977–78 and in 1982–83 led Aberdeen to Cup-Winners' Cup success in Sweden against Real Madrid, an honour which capped previously won approbation for League and Cup successes.

JOHN HOLLINS To play effectively in more than 700 League matches and be scarcely a source of concern to officialdom on the field or off it is a feat in itself at any level. In the highly competitive atmosphere of League football it is even more praiseworthy and in his service with Chelsea (twice), Queen's Park Rangers and Arsenal, John Hollins succeeded in maintaining not only the best traditions of his adopted profession but retained that schoolboy enthusiasm which spanned his entire career from Stamford Bridge and back again via Highbury and Loftus Road. At the end of last season he was assistant manager at Chelsea but still capable of playing in more than half his side's League games to help the club back to the First Division.

KEN JONES Northwich Victoria's annexation of the FA Trophy after a replay against Bangor was a fitting climax at the end of the term for club captain Ken Jones. At Wembley at the age of 37 he played his 900th match, having originally started on the staff of West Bromwich Albion and later graduated to Northwich via Ellesmere Port Town. It was in his 15th season with the Vics and few players can claim to have earned three testimonials in yeoman service with one club and moreover richly deserving of such a trio of accolades culminating in that Wembley milestone. It epitomised the loyalty and dedication of countless players in similar company up and down the country but was no less of a personal accomplishment for Ken Jones himself.

KEVIN KEEGAN In two years on Tyneside, Kevin Keegan added another significant chapter to his already illustrious life story in the game which saw him emerge with Scunthorpe United, develop with Liverpool, expand with Hamburg and continue with Southampton while at the same time gracing the England scene with the national team in the four corners of the world. But with Newcastle United he achieved something more: a personal contribution to the return of First Division football to St James's Park which ensured him of undying affection from the hearts of the Geordies as the giants of the north-east stirred from their Second Division slumbers. Kevin Keegan has been one of the most influential players to have figured in the last decade and at his peak was a world class performer.

HOWARD KENDALL In 1983–84 Everton came out from the Merseyside darkness which had shrouded Goodison Park since their last major honour in 1970 when they won the League Championship, a trophy which has since appeared to have become the property of their great rivals at Anfield. It was not an easy transition and often painful in the execution, but Manager Howard Kendall kept faith with his ideals and persevered to a point where the second half of the season produced a respectable League position and a place in the two major cup finals. On top of this the club's youngsters won the FA Youth Cup. In finishing as runners-up in the Milk Cup, Everton more than matched Liverpool over two absorbing games. In the FA Cup they deservedly won the trophy for the first time in 18 years marking a tribute to Kendall's honest and endearing approach to the rigours of management.

TREVOR SENIOR Apart from a deviation last year, it has been the practice to recognise the top League goalscorer of the season, simply because there is the equal opportunity over a programme of matches common to all clubs that is unfair when some teams' considerations are extended by lengthy cup runs. So Trevor Senior in his first full season at Reading finished as the top marksman in the four divisions. Originally discovered as a prolific scorer with Dorchester Town he was signed by Portsmouth but found opportunities restricted with them. He was lent to Aldershot and in a late season burst in 1982–83 revealed his scoring ability there and Reading snapped up this tall, athletic striker to replace Kerry Dixon, who had transferred to Chelsea. It was a sound move for club and player as Reading won promotion to Division Three.

27 Relegated Wolves sack manager Graham Hawkins. Chairman Derek Dougan's resignation is rejected. Assistant manager Jim Barron is temporarily in charge. Dundee United manager, Jimmy McLean, fined £500 by Scottish FA and banned from touchline until end of next season following remarks to referee. Gordon Cowans, Aston Villa and England midfielder, is cleared to start full training eight months after double fracture of a leg.

28 Nine players sent off (seven in First Division) including Watford captain Wilf Rostron who will, therefore, miss the FA Cup Final. QPR extend their unbeaten run to seven games by beating Spurs 2-1 and keep their chances of the League title alive as both clubs above them – Liverpool and Manchester United – can only draw. Chelsea and Sheffield Wednesday clinch promotion to the First Division, Chelsea with a 5-0 hammering of Leeds at Stamford Bridge (Kerry Dixon getting a hat-trick) and Wednesday with a 1-0 home win over Crystal Palace. Cambridge United gain their first win in 32 Second Division games by surprisingly beating promotion candidates, Newcastle United, 1-0 with a penalty. Don Howe is given two-year contract as Arsenal's manager. Southampton thrash luckless Coventry 8-2 at the Dell, their best-ever win in the First Division and the highest score in this Division since Derby County beat Spurs 8-2 in October 1976. There are six individual hat-tricks in the Football League. Motherwell are booked for relegation from Scottish Premier Division after losing 3-1 at home to Dundee United.

player in 11 years to receive this honour. Nottingham Forest fined £3,340 by UEFA for bottle-throwing incident in first leg of semi-finals against Anderlecht.

May 1984

2 An international debut goal by Mark Hughes gives Wales a deserved 1-0 win over England in their last Home International Championship meeting. England go through to the final of the UEFA U-21 Championship despite losing 1-0 to Italy in Florence in second leg of their semi-final.

3 Football League announce they are proposing to introduce new rules which could eliminate a number of financially embarrassed clubs from their competition. A six-man working party will examine the situation before this year's annual meeting on 8 June. Manchester United agree the £750,000 transfer of Gordon Strachan from Aberdeen. The player is considering the move. Aberdeen skipper Willie Miller is Scottish Football Writers' 'Player of the Year'.

4 Manchester City's promotion hopes are shattered with a 2-0 defeat by Chelsea. Football League are making inquiries into complaints that Wolves are 12 months behind in paying players bonus money. Former Hibernian winger and Scotland manager, Willie Ormond, dies aged 59. Only 790 watch Hartlepool lose 2-1 at home to Stockport. Hartlepool will have to apply for re-election for a record 14th time.

5 QPR's remarkable rise in the Championship race continues as they register their sixth consecutive victory – 3-0 at Notts County, with a Clive Allen hat-trick. Above them both Liverpool and Manchester United falter again with drawn games. They have each won only one of their last five games. Oxford win promotion from Division Three by holding Exeter to 1-1 draw at the Manor Ground. This result also means that Exeter are relegated. The Preliminary Competition of the 1986 World Cup kicks off with Austria winning 2-1 in Cyprus. Peter Cormack resigns managership of Partick Thistle.

7 Spurs rest some senior players before the UEFA Cup final against Anderlecht and suffer their heaviest defeat of the season – 5-0 at Southampton. Ian Rush is in peak form with four goals (including one penalty) for Liverpool in 5-0 win over Coventry at Anfield. Notts County are booked for relegation to Second Division after only three seasons. Oldham's 2-1 home win over Grimsby kills Derby's chance of escaping relegation to Division Three. Oxford break Third Division record for most points in a season by getting their 92nd with 2-1 win at Orient. York City become the first Football League club to earn a century of points. Their 3-0 home win over Bury takes them to 101 with one game still to play. Reading win their last home game 1-0 over Tranmere Rovers and are the only club this season to escape defeat at home. They have been undefeated in their last 28 home League games. Promotion from Division Four is settled – Doncaster Rovers, Bristol City and Reading will accompany York into Division Three.

9 Spurs hold Anderlecht to 1-1 draw in Brussels first leg of UEFA Cup Final, the Belgian side equalising six minutes from time after Paul Miller had headed Spurs into 58th minute lead. Some English fans again become violent and one is shot dead in a bar. Brian Clough complains about lack of support for Nottingham Forest. Attendances for last three First Division games only just over 14,000, and this for one of the country's top teams.

10 Ray Wilkins signs three-year contract with AC Milan in £1·4m transfer from Manchester United.

11 FA disciplinary commission clear Reading and Bristol City of blame for crowd violence at last month's Elm Park game. Portsmouth sack manager Bobby Campbell. Alan Ball becomes caretaker manager.

12 Liverpool clinch League Championship for 15th time. They become only the third club (after Huddersfield and Arsenal) to win the title three years in succession. QPR suffer their first defeat in run of 10 First Division games – 3-1 at Everton. Stoke stave off relegation with 4-0 win over Wolves, Paul Maguire getting all their goals (including two penalties). Mick Ferguson, on loan to Coventry from Birmingham, helps the Sky Blues escape relegation by scoring in 2-1 win over Norwich City, while Birmingham take the drop after goalless draw with Southampton. Kevin Keegan bows out of the League by helping Newcastle win promotion, scoring one of their goals in 3-1 home win over Brighton. Wimbledon are promoted for second successive season by gaining victory in their last Third Division game – 2-0 at Burnley. Defeated Scunthorpe, Southend and Port Vale accompany Exeter down to Division Four. Trevor Senior gets two goals for Reading in 3-3 draw at Hartlepool and finishes season as the League's top scorer with total of 36 goals. Eddie Gray rounds off his 20-year playing career with Leeds United. Bobby Watson resigns managership as Motherwell are relegated from Scottish Premier League.

13 Lou Macari's testimonial game at Old Trafford attracts a crowd of 40,140 (£85,000 receipts) to see Manchester United draw 1-1 with Celtic. This is a receipts record for a testimonial match in this country.

14 Crystal Palace sack manager Alan Mullery. Exeter City release statement confirming that former England skipper Gerry Francis had been relieved of his managerial duties on 9 May. Trevor Brooking plays his last game for West Ham, beaten 1-0 at home by Everton. He has been with the club for 19 years.

15 Colin Appleton resigns Hull City managership as they are just pipped for promotion from the Third Division. Needing to win by a margin of three goals to reach the Second Division they can only win 2-0 at Burnley.

16 Juventus win European Cup-Winners' Cup for first time with 2-1 victory over Porto. Nottingham Forest move into second place ahead of Manchester United after beating them 2-0 at the City Ground. Only Southampton can overtake them now. Colin Appleton takes over as manager of Swansea City.

17 A run of 10 games without defeat sees Southampton finish League Championship runners-up after beating Notts County 3-1. Paul Walsh joins Liverpool from Luton in £700,000 deal. England win first leg of UEFA U-21 Championship 1-0 in Spain. Women's FA are given a seat on the FA Council from next season. Dave Bassett, manager of newly promoted Wimbledon agrees to take over at Crystal Palace.

18 It is revealed that the Football League have begun enquiries into allegations that Spurs players have not received all the bonus payments they are entitled to under their contracts. Bobby Moore, caretaker manager of Southend United, is appointed manager.

19 Everton win the 103rd FA Cup final in convincing manner, beating Watford 2-0. It was the first time for four years that the match did not go to a replay. Aberdeen completed the League and Cup double by beating Celtic 2-1 after extra time in the Scottish FA Cup final. It was their third Cup win in successive seasons and the sixth consecutive year that extra time has had to be played. Six players were booked and Roy Aitken (Celtic) is the first player to be sent off in this final since Jock Buchanan (Rangers) in 1929.

20 Italian champions, Juventus, are reported to have bid £3·3m for Liverpool's Ian Rush but the player is not interested in leaving Anfield. FIFA award the 1990 World Cup Finals to Italy.

21 Dave Bassett quits Crystal Palace and returns to Wimbledon after only four days. He admits he had 'made a mistake'.

22 N. Ireland draw 1-1 with Wales in Swansea. Pat Jennings, making his 104th appearance for N. Ireland, retires injured at half-time. Those who have resented the demise of the International Championship would have wished for a bigger attendance; it was only 7000. Clive Walker resigns as Northampton's manager but will remain as coach.

23 Spurs win UEFA Cup at White Hart Lane but it is desperately close. The score was 1-1 (2-2 on aggregate) at the end of extra time and Spurs won on penalties.

24 Arthur Cox shocks newly promoted Newcastle by quitting as manager. England beat Spain 2-0 at Bramall Lane to win UEFA U-21 Championship 3-0 on aggregate. Terry Venables agrees to join Barcelona as coach. Their offer – a minimum of £150,000 a year – is too good to refuse. His departure takes totals of managers either resigning or sacked from Football League clubs since beginning of season to 33. Bournemouth win the Associate Members' Cup by beating Hull 2-1 in North v South Final. Bobby Robson is annoyed by Paul Walsh's withdrawal from the squads for both legs of the UEFA U-21 Final but denies a report that he has threatened to rule Walsh out of his England plans.

25 Aberdeen striker Mark McGhee joins Hamburg in £280,000 deal. Benny Rooney is appointed manager of Partick Thistle. Shrewsbury beat Wrexham 2-1 on aggregate after drawing 0-0 at Wrexham in second leg of Welsh Cup final, but as Shrewsbury is an English club Wrexham will still compete in next season's European Cup-Winners' Cup.

26 Manchester United agree £600,000 transfer of Gordon Strachan from Aberdeen but Cologne claim he has previously agreed to join them. Napoli are reported to have closed a £5m transfer deal for Diego Maradona of Barcelona. The British International Championship is brought to a close after 100 years with a 1-1 draw between Scotland and England before a crowd of 73,064 at Hampden Park. It is interesting to note that with the 74,000 gate restriction at present in force at Hampden Park it was the lowest attendance for this game played in Scotland since before World War I. The result meant that N. Ireland won the Championship on goal difference and will retain the trophy for all time.

27 N. Ireland are beaten 1-0 in Finland in their first match of the 1986 World Cup competition. It was Finland's first win in 23 games and one which N. Ireland should have won. England won the second leg of the Women's UEFA Cup Final at Luton, beating Sweden 1-0, but this brought the aggregate to 1-1 and England lost 4-3 on penalties.

30 Liverpool win European Cup 4-2 on penalties after holding Roma to a 1-1 draw in the Italian's home Olympic Stadium. It was the first time this particular final had been decided on penalties but this method of settling such important games is causing a lot of discontent. Fulham have promoted coach Ray Harford to team manager with financial director Brian Dalton responsible for administration.

28 Gordon Jago is appointed General Manager of QPR. Arthur Cox becomes manager of Derby County.

June 1984

1 Scotland lose 2-0 to France in Marseilles. Aberdeen and Celtic both bid around £350,000 for Watford striker Mo Johnston who is reported to be homesick. However, Watford will want considerably more to persuade them to let him go back to Scotland or anywhere else for that matter. David Pleat, Luton's manager, declines offer to become team manager of QPR.

2 England playing 4-2-4 are booed by large section of 38,000 crowd at Wembley as USSR cruise to a 2-0 victory.

3 28-year old Steve Coppell, former England and Manchester United winger, becomes the Football League's youngest manager when he takes over at Crystal Palace. Middlesbrough appoint their chief coach, Willie Maddren, manager. Portsmouth agree £100,000 transfer of Mike Kennedy from Middlesbrough.

5 QPR chairman, Jim Gregory, says 'I made a mistake', and fires Gordon Jago who was appointed general manager only seven days ago. It was felt that Jago's appointment made if difficult to get a top-class team manager. Portsmouth give Alan Ball a three-year contract as their new manager.

6 Three-man FA Appeals Committee cancel the two-year suspended sentence threatening a ban from the FA Cup which was imposed three months ago after the crowd violence at Birmingham's home Fifth Round tie with West Ham. Wales are beaten 1-0 by Norway in a friendly in Trondheim. A new football pool plan is launched in London. The Football League have not given their official backing but about 80 clubs are expected to become involved. It is called 'Top Score'.

7 Jim Iley (former Bury manager) is appointed manager of Exeter City. Roy McFarland agrees to stay with Derby County as assistant to new manager Arthur Cox.

8 At the Football League's AGM Jim Dunnett is re-elected President and all four bottom clubs are also re-elected. Hartlepool were applying for a record 14th time and Maidstone were bitterly disappointed at not taking their place. The League rejected a plea from the England manager to allow four match-free Saturdays before the forthcoming World Cup qualifying internationals. They only agree to one.

Controversial Tommy Docherty gets his 17th football managerial job by succeeding Graham Hawkins at Wolverhampton.

10 England achieve one of their most sensational wins in recent years by beating Brazil 2-0 in Rio with John Barnes getting a tremendous goal and Mark Hateley heading the second. Wales draw 0-0 in Israel.

12 The Final Tournament of the European Championship 1984 kicks off in Paris with France beating Denmark 1-0. Denmark's Allan Simonsen is carried off with a broken leg. Michel Platini again gets the winner. Liverpool and Scotland skipper Graeme Souness signs two-year contract for Italian club Sampdoria in £650,000 transfer deal which will bring the player a minimum of £150,000 a year. Liam Brady seems certain to move from Sampdoria to Inter-Milan in £1·75m transfer. Arsenal had hoped to re-sign him but cannot match this kind of offer. Brian Horton, Luton Town skipper, is appointed player-manager of Hull City.

13 England miss early chances against Uruguay in Montevideo but give creditable performance in losing 2-0.

14 Jackie Charlton becomes manager of Newcastle United.

16 Michel Platini stars with a hat-trick in France's 5-0 victory over Belgium in European Championship.

17 England draw final game of their three-match South American tour 0-0 with Chile. Roberto Rojas does well in the home goal but England's finishing is disappointing.

18 Aston Villa dismiss manager Tony Barton and his assistant Roy McLaren. Vince Hilaire joins Luton from Crystal Palace but Luton refuse to agree £150,000 fee which will have to be decided by a tribunal. After failing to secure Ian Rush from Liverpool, AC Milan bid £1m for Portsmouth striker Mark Hateley. Keith Burkinshaw is set to sign a two-year contract as Bahrain's national coach. Michel Platini gets another hat-trick as France progress through the European Championship with a 3-2 win over Yugoslavia.

20 QPR appoint Alan Mullery – axed by Crystal Palace just over a month ago – as team manager. Alan Brazil joins Manchester United from Spurs in £700,000 transfer. Steve McMahon, Aston Villa's £300,000 signing from Everton, requests a transfer.

22 Spurs are fined £7500 for fielding a weakened team when they lost 5-0 at Southampton two days before last month's UEFA Cup final first leg against Anderlecht.

23 French midfield star Michel Platini confirms his greatness by scoring the winning goal in the last minute of extra time against Portugal. France win this European Championship semi-final 3-2.

24 Another important game is settled with a penalty shoot out when Spain beat Denmark after a 1-1 draw to reach final of European Championship.

25 Tottenham's assistant manager Peter Shreeves is appointed manager in succession to Keith Burkinshaw. A major shareholding in newly promoted Dumbarton is on offer at £100,000. Former England manager Ron Greenwood resigns from Brighton's board for 'personal reasons'.

27 It is no surprise when France win European Championship with a 2-0 victory over Spain in Paris. That man Platini scores again, his ninth goal in five games.

28 AC Milan sign Portsmouth and England striker Mark Hateley for £915,000. Diego Maradona seems likely to move from Barcelona to Napoli in £4·5m transfer.

30 Manchester United sign their new Danish international midfield star Jesper Olsen from Ajax for £800,000. Portsmouth fill the vacancy left through the departure of Mark Hateley by paying Manchester United £85,000 for 21-year-old striker Scott McGarvey. The FA announce that they will be bidding to stage the 1988 European Championship finals. If successful this means that England will automatically qualify.

INTRODUCTION TO THE CLUB SECTION

Once again, the club section of Rothmans Football Yearbook has been illustrated with team photographs, but it must be stressed that these photographs were taken at the beginning of the 1983–84 season, and therefore relate to the season covered by this edition's statistics.

In order to include as much important information as possible on the club pages, some material which has appeared in previous editions has been omitted this year. Sub-headings such as How to get there, Car parking, and Catering facilities no longer appear, but we do publish the club addresses and telephone numbers, parking is usually difficult anyway, and catering facilities are obvious once you arrive at the stadium.

The second of each club's four pages gives the usual details of the League season, listing the date, venue, opponents, result, half-time score, goalscorers and attendance for each League game. At the foot of the page the goalscorers in League, Milk Cup and FA Cup are listed separately in order of goals scored, and there is a summary of the club's results in Milk Cup and FA Cup matches during the season. Please note that the attendance figures given on these pages are those published in the Press at the time, whereas the attendance statistics appearing on pages 431 and 432 are official Football League figures published after the season has finished.

The third page of each club's section shows the team line-ups for every League game of the season, and the appearances are totalled at the foot of each column. If a substitute was used, he appears as number 12, and an asterisk denotes which player was taken off. Substitute appearances are totalled separately at the foot of each column, but only if the substitute actually took part in the game.

The final page for each club lists all the players on the retained list, which is published at the end of May. Any subsequent transfers up to the time of going to press are listed in the transfer details between pages 424 and 430, and the player's details will remain under his former club. For the purposes of the appearance records on this fourth page, appearances as substitute have been amalgamated with full appearances. An asterisk by a player's name indicates that he was given a free transfer at the end of the 1983–84 season, while a dagger means that he is a non-contract player.

* In the Scottish League, two substitutes are allowed, and so in the Scottish club section, the substitutes are listed as numbers 12 and 13, and the second player to be taken off is marked with a dagger.

FOOTBALL LEAGUE ATTENDANCES 1983–84

As in the past four seasons, League attendances in 1983–84 declined compared with the previous season, but the percentage drop was the smallest for the period, hopefully showing that the decline is being arrested. As usual, Manchester United were the best-supported club, even showing an average increase in their home gates, but Liverpool, despite all their success in the season, pulled in nearly 3000 fewer spectators per home game than in 1982–83. Halifax Town had the poorest home gates, and the Second Division was the only one to show a healthy increase in spectators, thanks mainly to the crowd-pulling of the three top clubs. The divisional totals, with last year's figures in brackets and the percentage change, were:

Division One – 8,701,230 (9,295,613) −6·4%
Division Two – 5,359,757 (4,974,937) +7·7%
Division Three – 2,726,062 (2,943,568) −7·4%
Division Four – 1,555,067 (1,552,040) +0·2%
Total – 18,342,116 (18,766,158) −2·3%

SCOTTISH FOOTBALL

THE SCOTTISH SEASON 1983–84

It is always interesting to look back at the league tables as they were in the early part of the season and at the beginning of January. It is often surprising to find that there has been very little change, and that the pattern was there to be seen in the first stages of the competition; it was largely that way this season.

In the Premier, Aberdeen had some early sparring with Dundee United, Celtic and Hearts (who won their first five league games); by mid-October, however, the Dons were emerging: they took the lead at the end of the month and went steadily ahead. This season they had put domestic slipping behind them, and although they had some poor results and some fairly unworthy form at times, yet they had the mantle of the great upon them and serenely shrugged off lesser results; they had a sound group of young reserves, too, and could ride injuries, even to some of the stars. Above all, they had in Willie Miller an inspiration, and he deservedly won most of the individual honours at home. Celtic and Dundee United battled it out for second place, and they finished in that order; neither side quite found previous form, but did enough to suggest a firm challenge next season. Rangers, after an uncharacteristically abysmal start, improved, though not quickly enough to prevent the departure of the long-suffering John Greig; he was succeeded by Jock Wallace, who returned to continue the improvement; Rangers finished a creditable fourth – though there will not be much satisfaction with that position at Ibrox; and Hearts could be pleased with finishing high enough to enter European football again. At the foot of the table, Motherwell failed to hold on after a moderate start and sank without much fuss; they were joined in relegation by St Johnstone, who had a spirited attempt to avoid dismissal, but in the end could not overcome the disadvantage of losing their first seven games on the trot.

The First Division looked at first to be a canter for Partick Thistle. With the departure of Mo Johnston into the clutches of the English League, a vital part of the machinery disappeared, and gradually the cushion of points which Thistle had built up was whittled away. In the final stages, Morton and Dumbarton nudged ahead, and in the end they finished well clear at the top, with Morton taking the flag and making a welcome and quick return to the Premier Division. Brechin City were always well up the table, and had a fine first season in this company. In the relegation zone, it was Alloa who lost the way at the bottom, but half a dozen other teams fought for the dubious distinction of joining them on the trip down: on the last day, it was all between Ayr and Raith. The former had a good win over already-promoted Dumbarton to leave Raith, also winners on the day, in the relegation spot.

The Second Division was the most exciting in the later stages: Forfar were really in a different class, and they secured promotion very early on, ending with a record points total. Much enthusiasm and hard work had gone into their challenge, and they were well rewarded when they sailed into the First Division to join Brechin City as further representatives of the north-east. Who was to join Forfar? Stirling Albion, Arbroath and Queen of the South all declined almost overwhelmingly good positions, Berwick spluttered and hesitated, and it was left to East Fife to emerge from the darkness of the wings with a strong run at the end to clinch the second promotion spot. They had looked formidable in the Cup, but had been so variable earlier in the season that at the end they and their followers were left looking nervously round and wondering if it had really happened.

In the League Cup the system was changed – yet again. The initial rounds were all tied up by the end of November, and the last three ties were spread over four months, which really was rather a nonsense. However, it was an interesting and well-contested final, which Rangers won against Celtic. An Old Firm final is worthy of note these days, thought it used to be taken for granted.

East Fife, those redoubtable cup fighters, disposed of Hibs in the Cup after having held them to a goalless draw at Easter Road; they then found Celtic too hot to handle. Inverness Caley, Highland champions both this year and last, battled through three rounds, removing some League opposition on the way; they lost only after having brought the mighty Rangers to their northern fastnesses. By the semi-finals the Premier Division had triumphed. On a day governed by a high, blustery gale, Aberdeen beat Dundee at Tynecastle, with the second goal coming only in the final minute; while Celtic were successful against St Mirren by the odd goal in three. On to the final, and this, too, was interesting: if Aberdeen were well on top in the first half, there was a notable fight-back by Celtic's 10 men in the second which gave them a merited draw after full time. In extra time, Aberdeen were less tired, and scored a superb goal, deservedly taking the cup; thus they became only the second club this century to win the cup three years running.

In European competitions, Aberdeen and Dundee United carried a proud Scottish banner substantially forward. Of course we were all disappointed when both fell at the penultimate hurdle, but we must not forget the fine achievements of both teams in getting thus far and taking their places with the great teams of the Continent.

The international season did not give us much to cheer about, though from time to time there were good games and good results to note. The Under-21s did well before losing to Yugoslavia, but the senior team, having lost interest in Europe, were already looking ahead to the next World Cup. The British championship did not really catch fire until the last game – also the last against England at Hampden in the series. This was a good enough game, which either side could have won, and where the draw was a fair result; but it left us wondering with some trepidation about our future prospects: qualifying games will be all too soon upon us.

The new season is nearly upon us. Let us hope that our clubs can continue to make their presence felt in Europe. Perhaps soon the national team will follow their successes.

NORTHERN IRISH FOOTBALL 1983–84

The glory and the gloom. That was the story of Northern Ireland international football which again earned adulation and then astonishment in a remarkable season. Home and away victories over West Germany almost brought qualification for the European championship finals; but they lost on goal difference. The British championship was won for the third time in history and then five days later at the provincial town and seaport of Pori, 140 miles west of Helsinki, they crashed 1-0 to Finland in a World Cup qualifying tie.

Those two points would have been an ideal cushion with the next four matches at home. Now the pressure is on and reaching the Mexico finals is going to be a difficult task. Much will depend on the outcome of the September 12 match with Rumania, which also inaugurates the opening of the new £2m stand at Windsor Park, Belfast.

Domestically, there were a few hiccups with sponsorships for the main competitions but in the end these have worked out reasonably satisfactorily after publication by the Irish League of a brochure pinpointing the advantages of backing football commercially.

Linfield again took the largest share of the honours, retaining the championship for the third successive year as well as winning the Gold Cup and the County Antrim Shield. Glentoran, pace-setters for so long, faltered in the last six weeks and finished with only the Ulster Cup. Ballymena United, under player-manager Jim Platt, Northern Ireland and ex-Middlesbrough goalkeeper, won the Irish Cup.

An historic season, too, with the Northern Ireland Professional Footballers' Association winning their legal case against the soccer authorities on contractual issues which resulted in costs of £30,000 being met by the Irish League clubs.

New administrators also appeared on the scene – David Bowen taking over as secretary of the Irish Football Association in succession to Billy Drennan, MBE who has retired; Roy Marshall was appointed secretary of the Irish League with John Crossen (Glentoran) succeeding Jimmy Aperson (Bangor) as President. Irish FA president Harry Cavan was again elected Britain's representative on FIFA of which he is senior vice-president as well as a member of the Organising Committee, chairman of the Referees Committee and also of the Coca-Cola world youth championship.

BRITISH INTERNATIONAL GOALSCORERS SINCE 1872

Where two players with the same surname and initials have appeared for the same country, and one or both have scored, they have been distinguished by reference to the club which appears first against their name in the international appearances section (pages 623–671). Unfortunately, four of the scorers in Scotland's 10-2 victory v Ireland in 1888 are unknown, as is the scorer of one of their nine goals v Wales in March 1878.

EUROPEAN FOOTBALLER OF THE YEAR 1983

Michel Platini richly deserved the award as the 1983 European Footballer of the Year, simply because he was probably the only world-class player on the continent. Consistent performances for his Italian club side Juventus and for the French national team were fashioned around his ability as a midfield general and front line marksman, twin roles which appeared not to tax his talents.

Born on June 21, 1955 he played seven seasons for Nancy scoring 98 goals in 175 League appearances before moving on to St Etienne where he hit 58 in 107 games. Juventus enticed him away in 1982 and in his first season in the more defensive surroundings of the Italian game he managed 16 League goals and did even better in 1983–84 with 20. He has already overtaken Just Fontaine's record of goals for France and his prowess at being able to direct the ball for others and with equal precision for himself has made him unique in the present climate.

Platini's margin of victory was embarrassing – almost a century of points in front of Kenny Dalglish. British players figured prominently: Gordon Strachan was fourth while Bryan Robson, Ian Rush and Norman Whiteside were among the others who received votes. Three former European Players of the Year were included in France Football's poll: last year's winner Paolo Rossi managed three points, Karl-Heinz Rummenigge 14, though Allan Simonsen did better with 25 and third place.

FOOTBALL LEAGUE FIRSTS

The first five Football League games were played on 8 September, 1888. Bolton Wanderers were three goals up in about six minutes against Derby Co, but were eventually beaten 6-3. Cox of Aston Villa scored the first 'own goal', giving Wolverhampton W an early lead, but Villa recovered to draw 1-1.

Huddersfield T became the first team to complete a hat-trick of League Championships – 1924–25–26.

The Football League played their first representative game in April 1891. It was against the Football Alliance at Sheffield and resulted in a 1-1 draw.

Floodlit football

The first-ever game by floodlight was between two Sheffield Association teams at Bramall Lane, 14 October, 1878.

The first Football League game under floodlights was Portsmouth v Newcastle U at Fratton Park, 22 February, 1956.

Equipment, etc.

Shinguards were first introduced and registered by Sam Widdowson of Nottingham F in 1874. The cross-bar first replaced the tape in 1875, and the whistle was used by the referee for the first time in 1878. Goalnets were invented and patented by J. A. Brodie of Liverpool in 1890.

Nottingham F were the first club to use shinguards (1874), the referee's whistle (1878), three half backs (1885), the crossbar instead of tape (1891) and oval section goal posts (1921).

Substitutes

First substitute in a Football League game was Keith Peacock of Charlton Ath, at Bolton, 21 August, 1965.

The first substitute to score in a Football League game was Bobby Knox (Barrow) v Wrexham, Division 4, 21 August, 1965.

Radio and TV

The first match broadcast in England was the First Division game between Arsenal and Sheffield U at Highbury, 22 January, 1927.

The first Football League game to be televised was Blackpool v Bolton W, 10 September, 1960.

Corner kick

Billy Smith was the first player to score direct from a corner kick in a Football League game – Huddersfield T v Arsenal, 11 October, 1924.

Limited Company

The first football club to form itself into a limited liability company was Birmingham C in 1888. At that time they were known as Small Heath.

Penalty kick

The first player to score from a penalty kick in a Football League match was Heath of Wolverhampton W v Accrington, Division 1, 14 September, 1891.

Professional

The identity of the first professional footballer may never be definitely established, but it was probably J. J. Lang, a Scot who joined Sheffield Wednesday in 1876 after playing for Clydesdale and Glasgow Eastern.

Tour

Oxford University were the first to send a football team on an overseas tour when in 1875 they visited Germany.

Sunday football

The first Football League game to be played on a Sunday was between Millwall and Fulham on the morning of 20 January, 1974. Eleven other Football League games were played later the same day.

OTHER FOOTBALL LEAGUE RECORDS

The oldest player to appear in the Football League was Neil McBain who played in goal for New Brighton v Hartlepools U, Division 3(N), 15 March, 1947. He was then aged 52 years 4 months.

The record for most appearances in the Football League during one season by a player over 40 years of age was created by Bob McGrory. In his last season as a player with Stoke C (1934–35) he appeared in all 42 First Division games. Bob was then 43 years of age.

The record for most consecutive appearances in the Football League was created by Harold Bell, Tranmere R centre-half. From the opening game of season 1946–47 Bell did not miss a single game until August 1955 – a run of 401 consecutive Division 3(N) matches. Including FA Cup, Liverpool Senior Cup and Cheshire Bowl games, Bell enjoyed a run of 459 consecutive first team appearances.

John Trollope created a club record by making 770 League appearances for Swindon T between 1960 and 1980.

In the Scottish League the record for most appearances for a single club was created by Bob Ferrier with 626 for Motherwell between 1918 and 1937.

Since substitutes were introduced into League football in 1965, Bristol C is the club that has played through the longest spell without calling upon one of these players – a run of 52 League games, 4 FA Cup, and 2 League Cup ties from February 1966 to April 1967.

The shortest player to appear in the Football League is outside-right Fred le May, who was only 5ft tall. He played for Thames 1930–31, Watford 1931–32, and Clapton Orient 1932–33. The tallest was Albert Iremonger, Notts Co and Lincoln C goalkeeper 1904–27. He was 6ft 5in tall.

The longest single game on record is that between Stockport Co and Doncaster R, 30 March, 1946. In an effort to reach a decisive result, this Third Division (N) Cup tie continued for 203 minutes before bad light forced an abandonment.

Rochdale suffered 14 consecutive home defeats in Division 3(N) in 1931–32. This is a Football League record. After beating New Brighton 3-2 on 7 November, 1931, they did not get another home point until holding Barrow to a goalless draw in their second home game of season 1932–33. During that same period Rochdale suffered one run of 17 consecutive defeats (home and away) – also a Football League record.

In season 1904–05 Manchester U won 14 consecutive Division 2 games. This Football League record was equalled by Bristol C and Preston NE in Division 2 in 1905–06 and 1950–51 respectively.

Nottingham F were undefeated in a run of 42 First Division games, November 1977 to December 1978. This is a Football League record.

The longest run without defeat in a single season of Football League games is one of 30 matches by Burnley in Division 1 in 1920–21.

Six men have both played in and managed Football League Championship winning teams: Ted Drake, Arsenal, centre-forward, 1933–34, 1934–35, 1937–38, Chelsea, manager, 1954–55. Bill Nicholson, Tottenham H, right half-back, 1950–51, manager, 1960–61. Alf Ramsey, right-back, Tottenham H, 1950–51, Ipswich T, manager, 1961–62. Joe Mercer, left-half, Everton 1938–39, Arsenal, 1947–48, 1952–53, Manchester C, manager, 1967–68. Dave Mackay, left-half, Tottenham H, 1960–61, Derby Co, manager, 1974–75. Bob Paisley, Liverpool, left half-back, 1946–47, manager, 1975–76, 1976–77, 1978–79, 1979–80, 1980–81, 1981–82, 1982–83.

In 1973–74 Leeds U created a Football League record for the longest run without defeat from the start of a season – 29 First Division games before losing 2-3 at Stoke. It could be said that this only equalled Liverpool's run in the Second Division in 1893–94 when they were unbeaten in all 28 games. Their 29th game that season was the extra 'Test Match' to decide promotion and relegation between the First and Second Divisions.

The youngest player to appear in the Football League is Albert Geldard who was aged 15 years 156 days when making his début for Bradford against Millwall, Division 2, 16 September, 1929.

MISCELLANEOUS

Brazil set up a record for undefeated matches in the World Cup in the 1958 and 1962 finals, playing 13, winning 11, and drawing two. Their run ended when they lost 3-1 to Hungary in the 1966 World Cup.

Hungary went 13 years undefeated at home. After losing 7-2 to Sweden in 1943 they were unbeaten at home until they lost 4-2 to Czechoslovakia in 1956. The Hungarians also had a run of 29 games before losing: from their 5-3 defeat against Austria in May 1950 until they lost the World Cup final 3-2 to West Germany in July 1954.

Real Madrid were undefeated in League matches at home from February 1957, when they lost 3-2 to Atlético Madrid, until beaten again by Atlético 1-0 in March 1965. Between these defeats they won 114 matches and drew eight.

Ferenc Deak was one of the most prolific goalscorers in League football in the years immediately after the war. In 1945–46 he scored 66 goals for Szentlorinci AC in Hungary, 48 in 1946–47, and 59 in 1948–49 when with Ferencvaros.

Players who have won international caps for three different countries are Ladislav Kubala, capped for Hungary, Czechoslovakia, and Spain, and Alfredo Di Stefano for Argentina, Colombia, and Spain.

The Nordahl brothers, Knut, Bertil, and Gunnar, won Olympic gold medals with Sweden in 1948.

In 1955–56 Fiorentina went 33 Italian League matches without defeat.

In what is thought to be the longest match on record, Santos (Brazil) and Penarol (Uruguay) played 3½ hours from 2 August to 3 August after kicking off at 9.30 p.m. The match ended 3-3 after interruptions during play.

The first international played in Europe, other than between British teams, was Austria 5 Hungary 0 on 12 October, 1902. The first match in South America was a 1-1 draw between Argentina and Uruguay in 1905.

The first transfer fee approaching £1 million was £922,300 for Johan Cruyff from Ajax (Holland) to Barcelona (Spain) in 1973.

Diego Maradona was transferred from Barcelona to Napoli for £5,500,000 in June 1984.

The last ever British Championship match to be played at Wembley was between England and Northern Ireland in April 1984. As can be seen from the scoreboard, England won 1-0, but the Irish had the last laugh as they went on to win the Championship.

The TV rostrum at White Hart Lane during the first League game to be televised live under the new agreement between the Football League and the television companies. Spurs' opponents were Nottingham Forest, the date was 2 October, 1983, and the viewing figures were 5,063,000 – in addition to the 30,596 people in the stadium. (Photos: Associated Sports Photography)

INFORMATION SECTION

LAWS OF THE GAME

The Laws of the Game and Decisions of the International Board that follow are reproduced with the special permission of FIFA, and the text is the official text as published by FIFA.

LAW I
THE FIELD OF PLAY

The Field of Play and appurtenances shall be as shown in the following plan:

(1) Dimensions. The field of play shall be rectangular, its length being not more than 130 yards nor less than 100 yards and its breadth not more than 100 yards nor less than 50 yards. (In International Matches the length shall be not more than 120 yards nor less than 110 yards and the breadth not more than 80 yards nor less than 70 yards.) The length shall in all cases exceed the breadth.

(2) Marking. The field of play shall be marked with distinctive lines, not more than 5 inches in width, not by a V-shaped rut, in accordance with the plan, the longer boundary lines being called the touch-lines and the shorter the goal-lines. A flag on a post not less than 5ft high and having a non-pointed top, shall be placed at each corner; a similar flag-post may be placed opposite the halfway line on each side of the field of play, not less than 1 yard outside the touch-line. A halfway-line shall be marked out across the field of play. The centre of the field of play shall be indicated by a suitable mark and a circle with a 10 yards radius shall be marked round it.

(3) The Goal-Area. At each end of the field of play two lines shall be drawn at right-angles to the goal-line, 6 yards from each goal-post. These shall extend into the field of play for a distance of 6 yards and shall be joined by a line drawn parallel with the goal-line. Each of the spaces enclosed by these goal lines and the goal-line shall be called a goal-area.

(4) The Penalty-Area. At each end of the field of play two lines shall be drawn at right-angles to the goal-line, 18 yards from each goal-post. These shall extend into the field of play for a distance of 18 yards and shall be joined by a line drawn parallel with the goal-line. Each of the spaces enclosed by these lines and the goal-line shall be called a penalty-area. A suitable mark shall be made within each penalty-area, 12 yards from the mid-point of the goal-line, measured along an undrawn line at right-angles thereto. These shall be the penalty-kick marks. From each penalty-kick mark an arc of a circle, having a radius of 10 yards, shall be drawn outside the penalty-area.

(5) The Corner-Area. From each corner-flag post a quarter circle, having a radius of 1 yard, shall be drawn inside the field of play.

(6) The Goals. The goals shall be placed on the centre of each goal-line and shall consist of two upright posts, equidistant from the corner-flags and 8 yards apart (inside measurement), joined by a horizontal cross-bar the lower edge of which shall be 8ft from the ground. The width and depth of the goal-posts and the width and depth of the cross-bars shall not exceed 5 inches (12cm). The goal-posts and the cross-bars shall have the same width.

Nets may be attached to the posts, cross-bars and ground behind the goals. They should be appropriately supported and be so placed as to allow the goal-keeper ample room.

Footnote

Goal nets. The use of nets made of hemp, jute or nylon is permitted. The nylon strings may, however, not be thinner than those made of hemp or jute.

Decisions of the International Board

(1) In International matches the dimensions of the field of play shall be: maximum 110×75 metres; minimum 100×64 metres.

(2) National Associations must adhere strictly to these dimensions. Each National Association organising an International Match must advise the visiting Association, before the match, of the place and the dimensions of the field of play.

(3) The Board has approved this table of measurements for the Laws of the Game:

|---|---|
| 130 yards | ... 120 metres |
| 120 yards | ... 110 |
| 110 yards | ... 100 |

(4) The goal-line shall be marked the same width as the depth of the goal-posts and the cross-bar, so that the goal-line and goal-post will conform to the same interior and exterior edges.

(5) The 6 yards (for the outline of the goal-area) and the 18 yards (for the outline of the penalty-area) which have to be measured along the goal-line, must start from the inner sides of the goal-posts.

(6) The space within the inside areas of the field of play includes the width of the lines marking these areas.

(7) All Associations shall provide standard equipment, particularly in International Matches, when the Laws of the Game must be complied with in every respect and especially with regard to the size of the ball and other equipment which must conform to the regulations. All cases of failure to provide standard equipment must be reported to FIFA.

(8) In a match played under the Rules of a Competition, if the cross-bar becomes displaced or broken, play shall be stopped and the match abandoned unless the cross-bar has been repaired and replaced in position or a new one provided without such being a danger to the players. A rope is not considered to be a satisfactory substitute for a cross-bar.

In a Friendly Match, by mutual consent, play may be resumed without the cross-bar provided it has been removed and no longer constitutes a danger to the players. In these circumstances, a rope may be used as a substitute for a cross-bar. If a rope is not used and the ball crosses the goal-line at a point which in the opinion of the Referee is below where the cross-bar should have been he shall award a goal.

The game shall be restarted by the Referee dropping the ball at the place where it was when play was stopped.

(9) National Associations may specify such maximum and minimum dimensions for the cross-bars and goal-posts, within the limits laid down in Law I, as they consider appropriate.

(10) Goal-posts and cross-bars must be made of wood, metal or other approved material as decided from time to time by the International FA Board. They may be square, rectangular, round, half-round or elliptical in shape. Goal-posts and cross-bars made of other materials and in other shapes are not permitted.

(11) 'Curtain-raisers' to International Matches should only be played following agreement on the day of the match, and taking into account the condition of the field of play, between representatives of the two Associations and the Referee (of the International Match).

(12) National Associations, particularly in International Matches, should — restrict the number of photographers around the field of play,

— have a line ('photographers' line') marked behind the goal-lines at least two metres from the corner flag going through a point situated at least 3.5 metres behind the intersection of the goal-line with the line marking the goal area to a point situated at least six metres behind the goal-posts,
— prohibit photographers from passing over these lines,

— forbid the use of artificial lighting in the form of 'flashlights'.

LAW II – THE BALL

The ball shall be spherical; the outer casing shall be of leather or other approved materials. No material shall be used in its construction which might prove dangerous to the players.

The circumference of the ball shall not be more than 28in and not less than 27in. The weight of the ball at the start of the game shall not be more than 16oz nor less than 14oz. The pressure shall be equal to 0.6–1.1 atmosphere, (=600–1"100gr/cm²) at sea level. The ball shall not be changed during the game unless authorised by the Referee.

Decisions of the International Board

(1) The ball used in any match shall be considered the property of the Association or Club on whose ground the match is played, and at the close of play it must be returned to the Referee.

(2) The International Board, from time to time, shall decide what constitutes approved materials. Any approved material shall be certified as such by the International Board.

(3) The Board has approved these equivalents of the weights specified in the Law: 14 to 16 ounces = 396 to 453 grammes.

(4) If the ball bursts or becomes deflated during the course of a match, the game shall be stopped and restarted by dropping the new ball at the place where the first ball became defective.

(5) If this happens during a stoppage of the game (place-kick, goal-kick, corner-kick, free-kick, penalty-kick or throw-in) the game shall be restarted accordingly.

LAW III – NUMBER OF PLAYERS

(1) A match shall be played by two teams, each consisting of not more than eleven players, one of whom shall be the goalkeeper.

(2) Substitutes may be used in any match played under the rules of a competition, subject to the following conditions:

(a) that the authority of the international association(s) or national association(s) concerned, has been obtained,

(b) that, subject to the restriction contained in the following paragraph (c), the rules of a competition shall state how many, if any, substitutes may be used, and

(c) that a team shall not be permitted to use more than two substitutes in any match.

(3) Substitutes may be used in any other match, provided that the two teams concerned reach agreement on a maximum number, not exceeding five, and that the terms of such agreement are intimated to the Referee, before the match. If the Referee is not informed, or if the teams fail to reach agreement, no more than two substitutes shall be permitted.

(4) Any of the other players may change places with the goalkeeper, provided that the Referee is informed before the change is made, and provided also, that the change is made during a stoppage in the game.

(5) When a goalkeeper or any other player is to be replaced by a substitute, the following conditions shall be observed:

(a) the Referee shall be informed of the proposed substitution, before it is made,

(b) the substitute shall not enter the field of play until the player he is replacing has left, and then only after having received a signal from the Referee,

(c) he shall enter the field during a stoppage in the game, and at the half-way line.

Punishment:

(a) Play shall not be stopped for an infringement of paragraph 4. The players concerned shall be cautioned immediately the ball goes out of play.

(b) For any other infringement of this law, the player concerned shall be cautioned, and if the game is stopped by the Referee, to administer the caution, it shall be restarted by an indirect free-kick, to be taken by a player of the opposing team, from the place where the ball was, when play was stopped. If the free-kick is awarded to a side within its own goal-area, it may be taken from any point within that half of the goal-area in which the ball was when play was stopped.

Decisions of the International Board

(1) The minimum number of players in a team is left to the discretion of National Associations.

(2) The Board is of the opinion that a match should not be considered valid if there are fewer than seven players in either of the teams.

(3) A competition may require that the referee shall be informed, before the start of the match, of the names of not more than five players, from whom the substitutes (if any) must be chosen.

(4) A player who has been ordered off before play begins may be replaced only by one of the named substitutes. The kick-off must not be delayed to allow the substitute to join his team.

A player who has been ordered off after play has started may not be replaced.

A named substitute who has been ordered off, either before or after play has started, may not be replaced (this decision relates only to players who are ordered off under Law XII. It does not apply to players who have infringed Law IV).

(5) A player who has been replaced shall not take any further part in the game.

(6) A substitute shall be deemed to be a player and shall be subject to the authority and jurisdiction of the Referee whether called upon to play or not. For any offence committed on the field of play a substitute shall be subject to the same punishment as any other player whether called upon or not.

LAW IV – PLAYERS' EQUIPMENT

(1) A player shall not wear anything which is dangerous to another player.

(2) Footwear (boots or shoes) must conform to the following standard:

(a) Bars shall be made of leather or rubber and shall be transverse and flat, not less than half an inch in width and shall extend the total width of the sole and be rounded at the corners.

(b) Studs which are independently mounted on the sole and are replaceable shall be made of leather, rubber, aluminium, plastic or similar material and shall be solid. With the exception of that part of the stud forming the base, which shall not protrude from the sole more than one quarter of an inch, studs shall be round in plan and not less than half an inch in diameter. Where studs are tapered, the minimum diameter of any section of the stud must not be less than half an inch. Where metal seating for the screw type is used, this seating must be embedded in the sole of the footwear and any attachment screw shall be part of the stud. Other than the metal seating for the screw type of stud, no metal plates even though covered with leather or rubber shall be worn, neither studs which are threaded to allow them to be screwed on to a base screw that is fixed by nails or otherwise to the soles of footwear, nor studs which, apart from the base, have any form of protruding edge rim or relief marking or ornament should be allowed.

(c) Studs which are moulded as an integral part of the sole and are not replaceable shall be made of rubber, plastic, polyurethane or similar soft materials. Provided that there are no fewer than ten studs on the sole, they shall have a minimum diameter of three-eighths of an inch (10mm). Additional supporting material to stabilise studs of soft materials, and ridges which shall not protrude more than 5mm from the sole and moulded to strengthen it, shall be permitted provided that they are in no way dangerous to other players. In all other respects they shall conform to the general requirements of this Law.

(d) Combined bars and studs may be worn, provided the whole conforms to the general requirements of this Law. Neither bars nor studs on the soles shall project more than three-quarters of an inch. If nails are used they shall be driven in flush with the surface.

(3) The goalkeeper shall wear colours which distinguish him from the other players and from the Referee.

Punishment: For any infringement of this Law, the player at fault shall be sent off the field of play to adjust his equipment and he shall not return without first reporting to the Referee, who shall satisfy himself that the player's equipment is in order; the player shall only re-enter the game at a moment when the ball has ceased to be in play.

Decisions of the International Board

(1) The usual equipment of a player is a jersey or shirt, shorts, stockings and footwear. In a match played under the rules of a competition, players need not wear boots or shoes, but shall wear jersey or shirt, shorts, or track suit or similar trousers, and stockings.

(2) The Law does not insist that boots or shoes must be worn. However, in competition matches Referees should not allow one or a few players to play without footwear when all the other players are so equipped.

(3) In International Matches, International Competitions, International Club Competitions and friendly matches between clubs of different National Associations, the Referee, prior to the start of the game, shall inspect the players' footwear, and prevent any player whose footwear does not conform to the requirements of this Law from playing until such time as it does comply.

The rules of any competition may include a similar provision.

(4) If the Referee finds that a player is wearing articles not permitted by the Laws and which may constitute a danger to other players, he shall order him to take them off. If he fails to carry out the Referee's instruction, the player shall not take part in the match.

(5) A player who has been prevented from taking part in the game or a player who has been sent off the field for infringing Law IV must report to the Referee during a stoppage of the game and may not enter or re-enter the field of play unless and until the Referee has satisfied himself that the player is no longer infringing Law IV.

(6) A player who has been prevented from taking part in a game or who has been sent off because of an infringement of Law IV, and who enters or re-enters the field of play to join or rejoin his team, in breach of the conditions of Law XII, shall be cautioned. If the Referee stops the game to administer the caution, the game shall be restarted by an indirect free-kick, taken by a player of the opposing side, from the place where the ball was when the Referee stopped the game. If the free-kick is awarded to a side within its own goal-area, it may be taken from any point within that half of the goal-area in which the ball was when play was stopped.

LAW V – REFEREES

A Referee shall be appointed to officiate in each game. His authority and the exercise of the powers granted to him by the Laws of the Game commence as soon as he enters the field of play.

His power of penalising shall extend to offences committed when play has been temporarily suspended, or when the ball is out of play. His decision on points of fact connected with the play shall be final, so far as the result of the game is concerned. He shall:

(a) Enforce the Laws.

(b) Refrain from penalising in cases where he is satisfied that, by doing so, he would be giving an advantage to the offending team.

(c) Keep a record of the game, act as timekeeper and allow the full or agreed time, adding thereto all time lost through accident or other cause.

(d) Have discretionary power to stop the game for any infringement of the Laws and to suspend or terminate the game whenever, by reason of the elements, interference by spectators, or other cause, he deems such stoppage necessary. In such a case he shall submit a detailed report to the competent authority, within the stipulated time, and in accordance with the provisions set up by the National Association under whose jurisdiction the match was played. Reports will be deemed to be made when received in the ordinary course of post.

(e) From the time he enters the field of play, caution any player guilty of misconduct or ungentlemanly behaviour and, if he persists, suspend him from further participation in the game. In such cases the Referee shall send the name of the offender to the competent authority, within the stipulated time, and in accordance with the provisions set up by the National Association under whose jurisdiction the match was played. Reports will be deemed to be made when received in the ordinary course of post.

(f) Allow no person other than the players and linesmen to enter the field of play without his permission.

(g) Stop the game if, in his opinion, a player has been seriously injured; have the player removed as soon as possible from the field of play, and immediately resume the game. If a player is slightly injured, the game shall not be stopped until the ball has ceased to be in play. A player who is able to go to the touch or goal-line for attention of any kind, shall not be treated on the field of play.

(h) Send off the field of play, any player who, in his opinion, is guilty of violent conduct, serious foul play, or the use of foul or abusive language.

(i) Signal for recommencement of the game after all stoppages.

(j) Decide that the ball provided for a match meets with the requirements of Law II.

Decisions of the International Board

(1) Referees in International Matches shall wear a blazer or blouse the colour of which is distinct from the colours worn by the contesting teams.

(2) Referees for International Matches will be selected from a neutral country unless the countries concerned agree to appoint their own officials.

(3) The Referee must be chosen from the official list of International Referees. This need not apply to Amateur and Youth International Matches.

(4) The Referee shall report to the appropriate authority misconduct or any misdemeanour on the part of spectators, officials, players, named substitutes or other persons which take place either on the field of play or in its vicinity at any time prior to, during, or after the match in question so that appropriate action can be taken by the authority concerned.

(5) Linesmen are assistants of the Referee. In no case shall the Referee consider the intervention of a Linesman if he himself has seen the incident and from his position on the field, is better able to judge. With this reserve, and the Linesman neutral, the Referee can consider the intervention and if the information of the Linesman applies to that phase of the game immediately before the scoring of a goal, the Referee may act thereon and cancel the goal.

(6) The Referee, however, can only reverse his first decision so long as the game has not been restarted.

(7) If the Referee has decided to apply the advantage clause and to let the game proceed, he cannot revoke his decision if the presumed advantage has not been realised, even though he has not, by any gesture, indicated his decision. This does not exempt the offending player from being dealt with by the Referee.

(8) The Laws of the Game are intended to provide that games should be played with as little interference as possible, and in this view it is the duty of Referees to penalise only deliberate breaches of the Law. Constant whistling for trifling and doubtful breaches produces bad feeling and loss of temper on the part of the players and spoils the pleasure of spectators.

(9) By para. (d) of Law V the Referee is empowered to terminate a match in the event of grave disorder, but he has no power or right to decide, in such event, that either team is disqualified and thereby the loser of the match. He must send a detailed report to the proper authority who alone has power to deal further with this matter.

(10) If a player commits two infringements of a different nature at the same time, the Referee shall punish the more serious offence.

(11) It is the duty of the Referee to act upon the information of neutral Linesmen with regard to incidents that do not come under the personal notice of the Referee.

(12) The Referee shall not allow any person to enter the field until play has stopped, and only then, if he has given him a signal to do so, nor shall he allow coaching from the boundary lines.

LAW VI – LINESMEN

Two Linesmen shall be appointed, whose duty (subject to the decision of the Referee) shall be to indicate when the ball is out of play and which side is entitled to the corner-kick, goal-kick or throw-in. They shall also assist the Referee to control the game in accordance with the Laws. In the event of undue interference or improper conduct by a Linesman, the Referee shall dispense with his services and arrange for a substitute to be appointed. (The matter shall be reported by the Referee to the competent authority.) The Linesmen should be equipped with flags by the Club on whose ground the match is played.

Decisions of the International Board

(1) Linesmen, where neutral, shall draw the Referee's attention to any breach of the Laws of the Game of which they become aware if they consider that the Referee may not have seen it, but the Referee shall always be the judge of the decision to be taken.

(2) National Associations are advised to appoint official Referees of neutral nationality to act as Linesmen in International Matches.

(3) In International Matches, Linesmen's flags shall be of a vivid colour, bright reds and yellows. Such flags are recommended for use in all other matches.

(4) A Linesman may be subject to disciplinary action only upon a report of the Referee for unjustified interference or insufficient assistance.

LAW VII – DURATION OF THE GAME

The duration of the game shall be two equal periods of 45 minutes, unless otherwise mutually agreed upon, subject to the following: (a) Allowance shall be made in either period for all time lost through accident or other cause, the amount of which shall be a matter for the discretion of the Referee; (b) Time shall be extended to permit a penalty-kick being taken at or after the expiration of the normal period in either half.

At half-time the interval shall not exceed five minutes except by consent of the Referee.

Decisions of the International Board

(1) If a match has been stopped by the Referee, before the completion of the time specified in the rules, for any reason stated in Law V it must be replayed in full unless the rules of the competition concerned provide for the result of the match at the time of such stoppage to stand.

(2) Players have a right to an interval at half-time.

LAW VIII – THE START OF PLAY

(a) At the beginning of the game, choice of ends and the kick-off shall be decided by the toss of a coin. The team winning the toss shall have the option of choice of ends or the kick-off. The Referee having given a signal, the game shall be started by a player taking a place-kick (i.e., a kick at the ball while it is stationary on the ground in the centre of the field of play) into his opponents' half of the field of play. Every player shall be in his own half of the field and every player of the team opposing that of the kicker shall remain not less than 10 yards from the ball until it is kicked-off; it shall not be deemed in play until it has travelled the distance of its own circumference. The kicker shall not play the ball a second time until it has been touched or played by another player.

(b) After a goal is scored, the game shall be restarted in like manner by a player of the team losing the goal.

(c) After half-time: when restarting after half-time, ends shall be changed and the kick-off shall be taken by a player of the opposite team to that of the player who started the game.

Punishment: For any infringement of this Law, the kick-off shall be retaken, except in the case of the kicker playing the ball again before it has been touched or played by another player; for this offence, an indirect free-kick shall be taken by a player of the opposing team from the place where the infringement occurred, unless the offence is committed by a player in his opponent's goal-area, in which case the free-kick shall be taken from a point anywhere within that half of the goal-area in which the offence occurred. A goal shall not be scored direct from a kick-off.

(d) After any other temporary suspension: when restarting the game after a temporary suspension of play from any cause not mentioned elsewhere in these Laws, provided that immediately prior to the suspension the ball has not passed over the touch or goal-lines, the Referee shall drop the ball at the place where it was when play was suspended and it shall be deemed in play when it has touched the ground; if, however, it goes over the touch or goal-lines after it has been dropped by the Referee, but before it is touched by a player, the Referee shall again drop it. A player shall not play the ball until it has touched the ground. If this section of the Law is not complied with the Referee shall again drop the ball.

Decisions of the International Board

(1) If, when the Referee drops the ball, a player infringes any of the Laws before the ball has touched the ground, the player concerned shall be cautioned or sent off the field according to the seriousness of the offence, but a free-kick cannot be awarded to the opposing team because the ball was not in play at the time of the offence. The ball shall therefore be again dropped by the Referee.

(2) Kicking-off by persons other than the players competing in a match is prohibited.

LAW IX – BALL IN AND OUT OF PLAY

The ball is out of play:

(a) When it has wholly crossed the goal-line or touch-line, whether on the ground or in the air.

(b) When the game has been stopped by the Referee.

The ball is in play at all other times from the start of the match to the finish including:

(a) If it rebounds from a goal-post, cross-bar or corner-flag post into the field of play.

(b) If it rebounds off either the Referee or Linesmen when they are in the field of play.

(c) In the event of a supposed infringement of the Laws, until a decision is given.

Decisions of the International Board

(1) The lines belong to the areas of which they are the boundaries. In consequence, the touch-lines and the goal-lines belong to the field of play.

LAW X – METHOD OF SCORING

Except as otherwise provided by these Laws, a goal is scored when the whole of the ball has passed over the goal-line, between the goal-posts and under the cross-bar, provided it has not been thrown, carried or intentionally propelled by hand or arm, by a player of the attacking side, except in the case of a goalkeeper, who is within his own penalty-area.

The team scoring the greater number of goals during a game shall be the winner; if no goals, or an equal number of goals are scored, the game shall be termed a 'draw'.

Decisions of the International Board

(1) Law X defines the only method according to which a match is won or drawn; no variation whatsoever can be authorised.

(2) A goal cannot in any case be allowed if the ball has been prevented by some outside agent from passing over the goal-line. If this happens in the normal course of play, other than at the taking of a penalty-kick: the game must be stopped and restarted by the Referee dropping the ball at the place where the ball came into contact with the interference.

(3) If, when the ball is going into goal, a spectator enters the field before it passes wholly over the goal-line, and tries to prevent a score, a goal shall be allowed if the ball goes into goal unless the spectator has made contact with the ball or has interfered with play, in which case the Referee shall stop the game and restart it by dropping the ball at the place where the contact or interference occurred.

LAW XI – OFF-SIDE

(1) A player is in an off-side position if he is nearer to his opponents' goal-line than the ball, unless:

(a) He is in his own half of the field of play, or

(b) There are at least two of his opponents nearer their own goal-line than he is.

(2) A player shall only be declared off-side and penalised for being in an off-side position, if, at the moment the ball touches, or is played by, one of his team, he is, in the opinion of the referee

(a) interfering with play or with an opponent, or

(b) seeking to gain an advantage by being in that position.

(3) A player shall not be declared off-side by the referee

(a) merely because of his being in an off-side position, or

(b) if he receives the ball, direct, from a goal-kick, a corner-kick, a throw-in, or when it has been dropped by the referee.

(4) If a player is declared off-side, the referee shall award an indirect free-kick, which shall be taken by a player of the opposing team from the place where the infringement occurred, unless the offence is committed by a player in his opponents' goal-area, in which case, the free-kick shall be taken from a point anywhere within that half of the goal-area in which the offence occurred.

Decisions of the International Board

(1) Off-side shall not be judged at the moment the player in question receives the ball, but at the moment when the ball is passed to him by one of his own side. A player who is not in an off-side position when one of his colleagues passes the ball to him or takes a free-kick, does not therefore become off-side if he goes forward during the flight of the ball.

LAW XII – FOULS AND MISCONDUCT

A player who intentionally commits any of the following nine offences:

(a) Kicks or attempts to kick an opponent;

(b) Trips an opponent, i.e., throwing or attempting to throw him by the use of the legs or by stooping in front of or behind him;

(c) Jumps at an opponent;

(d) Charges an opponent in a violent or dangerous manner;

(e) Charges an opponent from behind unless the latter be obstructing;

(f) Strikes or attempts to strike an opponent;

(g) Holds an opponent;

(h) Pushes an opponent;

(i) Handles the ball, i.e., carries, strikes or propels the ball with his hand or arm. (This does not apply to the goalkeeper within his own penalty-area); shall be penalised by the award of a direct free-kick to be taken by the opposing side from the place where the offence occurred, unless the offence is committed by a player in his opponents' goal-area in which case, the free-kick shall be taken from a point anywhere within that half of the goal-area in which the offence occurred.

Should a player of the defending side intentionally commit one of the above nine offences within the penalty-area he shall be penalised by a penalty-kick.

A penalty-kick can be awarded irrespective of the position of the ball, if in play, at the time an offence within the penalty-area is committed.

A player committing any of the five following offences:

(1) Playing in a manner considered by the Referee to be dangerous, e.g., attempting to kick the ball while held by the goalkeeper;

(2) Charging fairly, i.e., with the shoulder, when the ball is not within playing distance of the players concerned and they are definitely not trying to play it;

(3) When not playing the ball, intentionally obstructing an opponent, i.e. running between the opponent and the ball, or interposing the body so as to form an obstacle to an opponent;

(4) Charging the goalkeeper except when he

(a) is holding the ball;

(b) is obstructing an opponent;

(c) has passed outside his goal-area;

(5) When playing as goalkeeper and within his own penalty area,

(a) from the moment he takes control of the ball with his hands, he takes more than four steps in any direction whilst holding, bouncing or throwing the ball in the air and catching it again, without releasing it into play, or, having released it into play before, during or after the 4 steps, he touches it again with his hands, before it has been touched or played by another player, or

(b) indulges in tactics which, in the opinion of the Referee, are designed merely to hold up the game and thus waste time and so give an unfair advantage to his own team – shall be penalised by the award of an indirect free-kick to be taken by the opposing side from the place where the infringement occurred, unless the offence is committed by a player in his opponents' goal-area, in which case the free-kick shall be taken from a point anywhere within that half of the goal-area in which the offence occurred.

A player shall be cautioned if:

(j) he enters or re-enters the field of play to join or rejoin his team after the game has commenced, or leaves the field of play during the progress of the game (except through accident) without, in either case, first having received a signal from the Referee showing him that he may do so. If the Referee stops the game to administer the caution the game shall be restarted by an indirect free-kick taken by a player of the opposing team from the place where the ball was when the Referee stopped the game. If the free-kick is awarded to a side within its own goal-area it may be taken from any point within the half of the goal-area in which the ball was when play was stopped. If, however, the offending player has committed a more serious offence he shall be penalised according to that section of the law he infringed;

(k) he persistently infringes the Laws of the Game;

(l) he shows by word or action, dissent from any decision given by the Referee;

(m) he is guilty of ungentlemanly conduct.

For any of these last three offences, in addition to the caution, an indirect free-kick shall also be awarded to the opposing side from the place where the offence occurred unless a more serious infringement of the Laws of the Game was committed. If the offence is committed by a player in his opponents' goal-area, a free-kick shall be taken from a point anywhere within that half of the goal-area in which the offence occurred.

A player shall be sent off the field of play, if:

(n) in the opinion of the Referee he is guilty of violent conduct or serious foul play;

(o) he uses foul or abusive language;

(p) he persists in misconduct after having received a caution.

If play be stopped by reason of a player being ordered from the field for an offence without a separate breach of the Law having been committed, the game shall be resumed by an indirect free-kick awarded to the opposing side from the place where the infringement occurred, unless the offence is committed by a player in his opponents' goal-area, in which case, the free-kick shall be taken from a point anywhere within that half of the goal-area in which the offence occurred.

Decisions of the International Board

(1) If the goalkeeper either intentionally strikes an opponent by throwing the ball vigorously at him or pushes him with the ball while holding it, the Referee shall award a penalty-kick, if the offence took place within the penalty-area.

(2) If a player deliberately turns his back to an opponent when he is about to be tackled, he may be charged but not in a dangerous manner.

(3) In case of body-contact in the goal-area between an attacking player and the opposing goalkeeper not in possession of the ball, the Referee, as sole judge of intention, shall stop the game if, in his opinion, the action of the attacking player was intentional, and award an indirect free-kick.

(4) If a player leans on the shoulders of another player of his own team in order to head the ball, the Referee shall stop the game, caution the player for ungentlemanly conduct and award an indirect free-kick to the opposing side.

(5) A player's obligation when joining or rejoining his team after the start of the match to 'report to the Referee' must be interpreted as meaning 'to draw the attention of the Referee from the touch-line'. The signal from the Referee shall be made by a definite gesture which makes the player understand that he may come into the field of play; it is not necessary for the Referee to wait until the game is stopped (this does not apply in respect of an infringement of Law IV), but the Referee is the sole judge of the moment in which he gives his signal of acknowledgement.

(6) The letter and spirit of Law XII do not oblige the Referee to stop a game to administer a caution. He may, if he chooses, apply the advantage. If he does apply the advantage, he shall caution the player when play stops.

(7) If a player covers up the ball without touching it in an endeavour not to have it played by an opponent, he obstructs but does not infringe Law XII para. 3 because he is already in possession of the ball and covers it for tactical reasons whilst the ball remains within playing distance. In fact, he is actually playing the ball and does not commit an infringement; in this case, the player may be charged because he is in fact playing the ball.

(8) If a player intentionally stretches his arms to obstruct an opponent and steps from one side to the other, moving his arms up and down to delay his opponent, forcing him to change course, but does not make 'bodily contact' the Referee shall caution the player for ungentlemanly conduct and award an indirect free-kick.

(9) If a player intentionally obstructs the opposing goalkeeper, in an attempt to prevent him from putting the ball into play in accordance with Law XII, 5(a), the Referee shall award an indirect free-kick.

(10) If after a Referee has awarded a free-kick a player protests violently by using abusive or foul language and is sent off the field, the free-kick should not be taken until the player has left the field.

(11) Any player, whether he is within or outside the field of play, whose conduct is ungentlemanly or violent, whether or not it is directed towards an opponent, a colleague, the Referee, a Linesman or other person, or who uses foul or abusive language, is guilty of an offence, and shall be dealt with according to the nature of the offence committed.

(12) If, in the opinion of the Referee a goalkeeper intentionally lies on the ball longer than is necessary, he shall be penalised for ungentlemanly conduct and

(a) be cautioned and an indirect free-kick awarded to the opposing team;

(b) in case of repetition of the offence, be sent off the field.

(13) The offence of spitting at opponents, officials or other persons, or similar unseemly behaviour shall be considered as violent conduct within the meaning of section (n) of Law XII.

(14) If, when a Referee is about to caution a player, and before he has done so, the player commits another offence which merits a caution, the player shall be sent off the field of play.

LAW XIII – FREE-KICK

Free-kicks shall be classified under two headings: 'Direct' (from which a goal can be scored direct against the offending side), and 'Indirect' (from which a goal cannot be scored unless the ball has been played or touched by a player other than the kicker before passing through the goal)

When a player is taking a direct or an indirect free-kick inside his own penalty-area, all of the opposing players shall remain outside the area, and shall be at least ten yards from the ball whilst the kick is being taken. The ball shall be in play immediately it has travelled the distance of its own circumference and is beyond the penalty-area. The goalkeeper shall not receive the ball into his hands, in order that he may thereafter kick it into play. If the ball is not kicked direct into play, beyond the penalty-area, the kick shall be retaken.

When a player is taking a direct or an indirect free-kick outside his own penalty-area, all of the opposing players shall be at least ten yards from the ball, until it is in play, unless they are standing on their own goal-line, between the goal-posts. The ball shall be in play when it has travelled the distance of its own circumference.

If a player of the opposing side encroaches into the penalty-area, or within ten yards of the ball, as the case may be, before a free-kick is taken, the Referee shall delay the taking of the kick, until the Law is complied with.

The ball must be stationary when a free-kick is taken, and the kicker shall not play the ball a second time, until it has been touched or played by another player.

Notwithstanding any other reference in these Laws to the point from which a free-kick is to be taken, any free-kick awarded to the defending side, within its own goal-area, shall be taken from any point within that half of the goal-area in which the free-kick has been awarded.

Punishment. If the kicker, after taking the free-kick, plays the ball a second time before it has been touched or played by another player an indirect free-kick shall be taken by a player of the opposing team from the spot where the infringement occurred.

Decisions of the International Board

(1) In order to distinguish between a direct and an indirect free-kick, the Referee, when he awards an indirect free-kick, shall indicate accordingly by raising an arm above his head. He shall keep his arm in that position until the kick has been taken and retain the signal until the ball has been played or touched by another player or goes out of play.

(2) Players who do not retire to the proper distance when a free-kick is taken must be cautioned and on any repetition be ordered off. It is particularly requested of Referees that attempts to delay the taking of a free-kick by encroaching should be treated as serious misconduct.

(3) If, when a free-kick is being taken, any of the players dance about or gesticulate in a way calculated to distract their opponents, it shall be deemed ungentlemanly conduct for which the offender(s) shall be cautioned.

LAW XIV – PENALTY-KICK

A penalty-kick shall be taken from the penalty-mark and, when it is being taken, all players with the exception of the player taking the kick, and the opposing goal-keeper, shall be within the field of play but outside the penalty-area, and at least 10 yards from the penalty-mark. The opposing goalkeeper must stand (without moving his feet) on his own goal-line, between the goal-posts, until the ball is kicked. The player taking the kick must kick the ball forward; he shall not play the ball a second time until it has been touched or played by another player. The ball shall be deemed in play directly it is kicked, i.e., when it has travelled the distance of its circumference, and a goal may be scored direct from such a penalty-kick. If the ball touches the goalkeeper before passing between the posts, when a penalty-kick is being taken at or after the expiration of half-time or full-time, it does not nullify a goal. If necessary, time of play shall be extended at half-time or full-time to allow a penalty-kick to be taken.

Punishment

For any infringement of this Law:

(a) by the defending team, the kick shall be retaken if a goal has not resulted.

(b) by the attacking team other than by the player taking the kick, if a goal is scored it shall be disallowed and the kick retaken.

(c) by the player taking the penalty-kick, committed after the ball is in play, a player of the opposing team shall take an indirect free-kick from the spot where the infringement occurred. If, in the case of paragraph (c), the offence is committed by the player in his opponents' goal-area, the free-kick shall be taken from a point anywhere within that half of the goal-area in which the offence occurred.

---

(1) When the Referee has awarded a penalty-kick, he shall not signal for it to be taken, until the players have taken up position in accordance with the Law.

(2) (a) If, after the kick has been taken, the ball is stopped in its course towards goal, by an outside agent, the kick shall be retaken.

(b) If, after the kick has been taken, the ball rebounds into play, from the goalkeeper, the cross-bar or a goal-post, and is then stopped in its course by an outside agent, the Referee shall stop play and restart it by dropping the ball at the place where it came into contact with the outside agent.

(3) (a) If, after having given the signal for a penalty-kick to be taken, the Referee sees that the goalkeeper is not in his right place on the goal-line, he shall, nevertheless, allow the kick to proceed. It shall be retaken, if a goal is not scored.

(b) If, after the Referee has given the signal for a penalty-kick to be taken, and before the ball has been kicked, the goal-keeper moves his feet, the Referee shall, nevertheless, allow the kick to proceed. It shall be retaken, if a goal is not scored.

(c) If, after the Referee has given the signal for a penalty-kick to be taken, and before the ball is in play, a player of the defending team encroaches into the penalty-area, or within ten yards of the penalty-mark, the Referee shall, nevertheless, allow the kick to proceed. It shall be retaken, if a goal is not scored.

The player concerned shall be cautioned.

(4) (a) If, when a penalty-kick is being taken, the player taking the kick is guilty of ungentlemanly conduct, the kick, if already taken, shall be retaken, if a goal is scored.

The player concerned shall be cautioned.

(b) If, after the Referee has given the signal for a penalty-kick to be taken, and before the ball is in play, a colleague of the player taking the kick encroaches into the penalty-area or within ten yards of the penalty-mark, the Referee shall, nevertheless, allow the kick to proceed. If a goal is scored, it shall be disallowed, and the kick retaken.

The player concerned shall be cautioned.

(c) If, in the circumstances described in the foregoing paragraph, the ball rebounds into play from the goalkeeper, the crossbar or a goal-post, the Referee shall stop the game, caution the player and award an indirect free-kick to the opposing team from the place where the infringement occurred.

(5) (a) If, after the referee has given the signal for a penalty-kick to be taken, and before the ball is in play, the goalkeeper moves from his position on the goal-line, or moves his feet, and a colleague of the kicker encroaches into the penalty-area or within 10 yards of the penalty-mark, the kick, if taken, shall be retaken.

The colleague of the kicker shall be cautioned.

(b) If, after the Referee has given the signal for a penalty-kick to be taken, and before the ball is in play, a player of each team encroaches into the penalty-area, or within 10 yards of the penalty-mark, the kick, if taken, shall be retaken.

The players concerned shall be cautioned.

(6) When a match is extended, at half-time or full-time, to allow a penalty-kick to be taken or retaken, the extension shall last until the moment that the penalty-kick has been completed, i.e. until the Referee has decided whether or not a goal is scored.

A goal is scored when the ball passes wholly over the goal-line.

(a) direct from the penalty-kick,

(b) having rebounded from either goal-post or the cross-bar, or

(c) having touched or been played by the goalkeeper.

The game shall terminate immediately the Referee has made his decision.

(7) When a penalty-kick is being taken in extended time:

(a) the provisions of all of the foregoing paragraphs, except paragraphs (2)(b) and (4)(c) shall apply in the usual way, and

(b) in the circumstances described in paragraphs (2)(b) and (4)(c) the game shall terminate immediately the ball rebounds from the goalkeeper, the cross-bar or the goal-post.

LAW XV – THROW-IN

When the whole of the ball passes over a touch-line, either on the ground or in the air, it shall be thrown in from the point where it crossed the line, in any direction, by a player of the team opposite to that of the player who last touched it. The thrower at the moment of delivering the ball must face the field of play and part of each foot shall be either on the touch-line or on the ground outside the touch-line. The thrower shall use both hands and shall deliver the ball from behind and over his head. The ball shall be in play immediately it enters the field of play, but the thrower shall not again play the ball until it has been touched or played by another player. A goal shall not be scored direct from a throw-in.

Punishment:

(a) If the ball is improperly thrown in the throw-in shall be taken by a player of the opposing team.

(b) If the thrower plays the ball a second time before it has been touched or played by another player, an indirect free-kick shall be taken by a player of the opposing team from the place where the infringement occurred, unless the offence is committed by a player in his opponents' goal-area, in which case, the free-kick shall be taken from a point anywhere within that half of the goal-area in which the offence occurred.

Decisions of the International Board

(1) If a player taking a throw-in, plays the ball a second time by handling it within the field of play before it has been touched or played by another player, the Referee shall award a direct free-kick.

(2) A player taking a throw-in must face the field of play with some part of his body.

(3) If, when a throw-in is being taken, any of the opposing players dance about or gesticulate in a way calculated to distract or impede the thrower, it shall be deemed ungentlemanly conduct, for which the offender(s) shall be cautioned.

LAW XVI – GOAL-KICK

When the whole of the ball passes over the goal-line excluding that portion between the goal-posts, either in the air or on the ground, having last been played by one of the attacking team, it shall be kicked direct into play beyond the penalty-area from a point within that half of the goal-area nearest to where it crossed the line, by a player of the defending team. A goalkeeper shall not receive the ball into his hands from a goal-kick in order that he may thereafter kick it into play. If the ball is not kicked beyond the penalty-area, i.e., direct into play, the kick shall be retaken. The kicker shall not play the ball a second time until it has touched – or been played by – another player. A goal shall not be scored direct from such a kick. Players of the team opposing that of the player taking the goal-kick shall remain outside the penalty-area whilst the kick is being taken.

Punishment:

If a player taking a goal-kick plays the ball a second time after it has passed beyond the penalty-area, but before it has touched or been played by another player, an indirect free-kick shall be awarded to the opposing team, to be taken from the place where the infringement occurred, unless the offence is committed by a player in his opponents' goal-area, in which case, the free-kick shall be taken from a point anywhere within that half of the goal-area in which the offence occurred.

Decisions of the International Board

(1) When a goal-kick has been taken and the player who has kicked the ball touches it again before it has left the penalty-area, the kick has not been taken in accordance with the Law and must be retaken.

LAW XVII – CORNER-KICK

When the whole of the ball passes over the goal-line, excluding that portion between the goal-posts, either in the air or on the ground, having last been played by one of the defending team, a member of the attacking team shall take a corner-kick, i.e., the whole of the ball shall be placed within the quarter circle at the nearest corner-flag post, which must not be moved, and it shall be kicked from that position. A goal may be scored direct from such a kick. Players of the team opposing that of the player taking the corner-kick shall not approach within 10 yards of the ball until it is in play, i.e., it has travelled the distance of its own circumference, nor shall the kicker play the ball a second time until it has been touched or played by another player.

Punishment:

(a) If the player who takes the kick plays the ball a second time before it has been touched or played by another player, the Referee shall award an indirect free-kick to the opposing team, to be taken from the place where the infringement occurred, unless the offence is committed by a player in his opponents' goal-area, in which case the free-kick shall be taken from a point anywhere within that half of the goal-area in which the offence occurred.

(b) For any other infringement the kick shall be retaken.

FIFA WORLD CUP 1986

Fixtures for the Preliminary Competition

Introduction

There are six confederations of Football Associations in FIFA. At the time of going to press, fixture dates were known only for the European confederation (UEFA). Details of the groupings in the other confederations are listed below, together with notes explaining the system for qualification.

EUROPE (UEFA)

Italy qualify automatically as World Champions. Groups 2, 3, 4 and 6 will be decided on a League basis, with teams playing each other home and away. The top two teams in each group will qualify for the final tournament. Groups 1, 5 and 7 will also be decided on a League basis, but only the top team will qualify. The runners-up in these three groups will play an additional round on a League basis, and the top team will qualify. The runner-up in this additional round will play a two-match play-off against the winner of the Oceania group for a place in the finals. The team coming third in the additional round will be eliminated.
